SERBIA SLOWLY BEING CRUSHED

Teutonic and Bulgarian Attacks Progressing.

BOMBARD BULGARIAN COAST

Entente Powers Are Believed to Be Bent on Landing Troops Near Deagatch—Severe Fighting Is Taking Place Along the Russian and Italian Fronts.

London, Oct. 25.—A continuation of the progress of the Teutonic allies and Bulgarians against Serbia and fresh advances by the Germans in Northwest Russia are the outstanding features in the world war, as reported in the official communications.

Another crossing of the Danube has been made by the Germans—at Orsova, in Northwestern Serbia, near the iron gates of the Danube, where the river leaves Austrian soil. The Bulgarians to the south of this region have crossed the Timok river, between Kniazevac and Zajecar, and a battle is in progress for the possession of the former place.

The French in the vicinity of the Greek border have captured with small losses and are holding the village of Nabrow, nine miles south of Strumitza. The understanding at Saloniki, according to a news agency dispatch from Athens, is that the bombardment of the Bulgarian coast on the Aegean sea is in connection with a plan of the allies to make a landing at Porto Lagos, to the west of Dedeahatch.

That heavy fighting is almost continuous along the Divinsk front is attested by both German and Russian official communications. By a violent concentrated artillery fire the Germans prepared for the storming of Ilouket. The infantry attacks lasted throughout an entire day, at the close of which the Germans occupied the town. The losses on both sides were heavy, as the battle was carried right into the streets with the bayonet.

Austria and Italy are both fighting with the utmost determination along the Austro-Italian frontier. The Italian war office reports that "a new and brilliant success" has marked the Italian offensive in the Ledro valley. In the Carso district the deadly effects of the Austrian artillery are admitted by the Italian staff, which says that, notwithstanding this, the Italian infantry advanced impetuously and captured ground on the left wing, east of Peteano, and in the center of the front.

CANADIAN PRIESTS KILLED

Ottawa, Oct. 25.—Five priests of the Ottawa Roman Catholic diocese have given their lives in the cause of the British empire at the front. It was announced here. Fathers Albert, Edouard and Justinian of the Capuchin monastery here, Father de Leglise of the Oblate order, stationed in Hull, and Father L. Bodo, a Marist father of Papineauville, have all met death on the battlefield. All were French reservists.

It is stated here that the record for enlistments from one church parish in Canada, is held by St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church here, 220 members of the congregation joining the expeditionary force.

VON WAGENHEIM ILL AGAIN

German Ambassador to Turkey Must Quit His Post.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Baron von Wagenheim, the German ambassador to Turkey, who recently returned to Constantinople after an absence caused by failing health, again is seriously ill, says the Overseas News agency, and will be unable for some time to continue his work.

Baron von Wagenheim is generally credited with having brought about the intimate relations existing between Turkey and Germany.

FARMERS' GATHERING SET

Fargo, N. D., Oct. 25.—The Tri-State Grain Growers' convention this winter, the annual meeting of farmers from Western Minnesota, Northern South Dakota and all North Dakota, will be the greatest one of its kind ever held.

It has been announced officially by President John H. Worst of the agricultural college, president of the organization, and Professor W. C. Palmer of the extension department, secretary, that the convention will be held Jan. 18 to 21.

Berlin, Oct. 25.—Dr. Constantin Dumba, whose recall as Austro-Hungarian ambassador to the United States was requested by President Wilson, arrived in Berlin with his wife. Commenting on the arrival of the diplomat, the Vossische Zeitung says:

"We learn from a usually well informed source that Emperor Francis Joseph has ennobled Ambassador Dumba."

EIGHT STATES WILL BALLOT ON NOV. 2

Important Constitutional Issues Attract Attention.

New York, Oct. 25.—Eight states, all east of the Mississippi, namely: New York, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Ohio and Mississippi, will hold elections on Tuesday, Nov. 2.

In four of these states, Massachusetts, Maryland, Kentucky and Mississippi, governors are to be elected; in six states, New York, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Jersey, Kentucky and Mississippi, the state legislatures, in whole or in part, are to be elected, and in five states, New York, Massachusetts, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Ohio, important constitutional issues are to be decided.

With a few local exceptions, in fact, these constitutional questions will be the dominant issues on election day, including as they do such fundamental matters as woman suffrage, municipal home rule, prohibition, state income taxes, referendum plans and some lesser reforms.

The woman suffrage question will come up for decision in New York, Pennsylvania and Massachusetts, which states will furnish, in point of population, the greatest test the suffrage issue has ever had in the United States.

BOTHA'S VICTORY SWEEPING

Premier Has Ninety-nine Members of Parliament.

Johannesburg, Union of South Africa, Oct. 25.—Premier Botha and his imperial policy gained an important victory in the South Africa parliamentary elections just concluded.

The Botha party elected fifty-four of its candidates, the Allied Unionists returned forty seats and the Independents returned five seats against twenty-seven seats won by the Hertzog party and four Labor members returned.

The striking feature of the election was the severe defeat of the Labor candidates.

BELGIANS OF MILITARY AGE SENT TO GERMANY.

London, Oct. 25.—A telegram from Amsterdam to the Exchange Telegraph company says:

"Messages from the Belgian frontier state that Belgian subjects between the ages of seventeen and thirty-five years, liable for military service, have been notified by the German authorities at Brussels to report to the German commander, with the result that 7,500 so far have been deported to Germany."

"Preparedness Is Best Guarantee of Peace"

These are members of the national advisory board and the national committee of the American defense society, which has just begun a great campaign over the United States to convince the American public that "preparedness is the best guaranty of peace." In the short while in which the society has been at work it has grown so rapidly that it has become the foremost organization working along these lines.

Henry A. Wise, whose grandfather as well as his father, were governors of Virginia, is a member of the advisory board. He served as a captain and later a major in the Spanish-American war and some twenty members of his family were in it with him.

Charles J. Bonaparte of Baltimore, grandson of Jerome Bonaparte, who married the famous Betsy Patterson, of Baltimore, is another member of the board. Under President Roosevelt, Mr. Bonaparte was secretary of the navy and afterwards attorney general.

Truman H. Newberry, who under Charles J. Bonaparte, was assistant secretary of the navy, 1905-8, and secretary, 1908-09, is also serving with him on the advisory board. Mr. Newberry saw active service in the Spanish war as lieutenant on the U. S. Yosemite.

A recently appointed member is David Jayne Hill, ambassador to Berlin, 1908-11, and well-known author and international lawyer. He is a member of the Permanent Administrative Council of The Hague Tribunal.

Hudson Maxim, the inventor of smokeless powder, is a member of the government's Naval Advisory Board. He is the foremost expert in the country on high explosives.

Among the notable names on the national committee of the society is that of Perry Belmont, who, besides his many other activities, was in 1898 major inspector general of the First Division of the Second Army Corps, U. S. V., and is an ardent advocate of American military preparedness.

President John Grier Hibben of Princeton, is an interested member of the committee.

The famous zoologist and collector, W. T. Hornaday, is another worker who having secured the passage of many laws protecting the wild birds and game of the country from extermination, is now turning his attention to the safety of the human species.

Franklin Murphy, ex-governor of New Jersey and Civil War veteran, is also a member of the national committee.

$2,750,000,000 LOAN AUTHORIZED BY CZAR

Russian Minister of Finance Ordered to Negotiate Advance.

Petrograd, Oct. 25.—An imperial ukase issued authorizes the Russian minister of finance to transact on foreign markets credit operations amounting to 5,500,000,000 rubles ($2,750,000,000); also to issue abroad the necessary bonds in pounds, francs and dollars.

Explaining his plans to a representative of the press Pierre Bark, the finance minister, said the whole fiscal system of Russia would be reformed on the basis of the income tax, which already has been approved by the duma and now is under consideration by the council of the empire. All taxes, he said, also will be taxed, which will bring into the treasury $75,000,000 annually.

Schemes for creating leather, sugar and match monopolies are being worked out.

The question of a 6 per cent internal loan shortly will be determined, as the Russian money market is rich in resources, the proof of which, said the minister, will be found in the recent statement that current deposits in private banks had reached the marvelous total of $2,000,000,000 and that the increase in deposit accounts for the year ending in September amounted to $350,000,000, while the savings bank deposit monthly increase was $25,000,000.

ACCUSE TWO MEN OF BOMB PLOTS

New York Police Find Explosives and Harbor Charts.

WATCH OUTGOING VESSELS

Authorities Detain Lieutenant in the German Army and His Brother-in-Law and Will Turn Them Over to Federal Officials for Investigation.

New York, Oct. 25.—Police who have been watching outgoing vessels for explosives detained Robert Fay, a lieutenant in the German army, and his brother-in-law, Walter Scholz, in Weehawken, N. J. Explosives and survey charts of New York harbor were found in their possession.

The men are declared to have been testing a bomb in a small grove when apprehended.

Five steel mines, said by the police to belong to the prisoners, later were found in a West Hoboken storehouse. Each was packed in a separate wooden case and fitted with an attachment which might be fastened to the stern of a ship by a wire. Contact with the propeller of a ship, it is said, would explode the mine.

Two suitcases, found in the men's room in Weehawken, were filled with explosives, letters written in German and official looking documents. Among the explosives were several sticks of dynamite and various kinds of acid used in the manufacture of explosives.

Lieutenant in German Army.

One of the papers showed Fay to be a lieutenant in the German army and a member of the Wilhelm Strasse.

Fay is said to have come to this country shortly after the battle of the Marne. Scholz has been in the United States for several years. Efforts of the police to identify him as a former member of the emperor's household failed. They had been in the Weehawken rooming house about two weeks. The proprietor said he knew nothing of their history prior to their arrival at his place.

Members of both the New York city "anarchist" squad and New Jersey police detained the men and questioned them. They will be turned over to the federal authorities for investigation.

The detention of Fay and Scholz came after a search of ten days. Reports that suspicious appearing men had been loitering about the Jersey docks when munitions were being loaded and also about munitions plants caused Captain Tunney of the "anarchist" squad and his men to be detailed to the New Jersey side.

She had conducted religious meetings at the state prison for more than fifty years and held meetings at the Ramsey county jail and the St. Paul workhouse regularly ever since their founding.

Beginning as a reform worker at the age of thirteen years Mrs. Morrison spent almost her whole life for others.

The Really Great

Show me the man who says "I will." Not the one who says "I'll try." The one with a wealth of crimson fluid And the steel blue tint in the eye. The one who moves with earnest mien, While others stand round and wait 'Till numbered among the might have been, And I'll show you a type of the great.

Show me the man who stands alone, No matter what the odds. Who feels the prize already his own, A man who is prized by the gods. His is the heart where virtues blend, The bulwark of nation and state. SEEK TO STOP GAMBLING
IN "WAR ORDER" STOCKS.

Conservative Element in Wall Street Alarmed by Speculative Value.

Conservative Wall street, by which is meant that element in the New York financial district which has not gone insane over the so called "war babies" and cannot subscribe to the prevailing belief that every industrial stock on the list of the exchange will sell for at least 500, is attempting to check speculation in these issues. To this end some of the banks have notified customers that heavier margins would have to be provided on loans in which such industrials figure as collateral.

On their part conservative houses warned customers to go slow and by way of making their warning effective called for heavier margins.

These acts, together with some profit taking, have had the effect of checking the advance, though trading in "war babies" at times is on the same wild scale.

Conditions in speculative Wall street are unlike anything in the memory of the oldest members of the exchange. Proceeds that in other markets could have been depended upon as guides prove useless, for there never was quite such a condition before.

The result is that speculators who have run the traditional shoestring into a limousine are plunging with their winnings, thus building up a bull account that because of its size is extremely vulnerable to any adverse development. The pyramid first and last has contributed to more trouble in Wall street than any other one thing, and brokers are afraid of the immense thing now building.

Ordinarily Wall street speculators think well of a trade that yields five points profit a week. Now brokers have difficulty in interesting customers in anything that does not move that many points in a session and give promise of five times five points advance.

BRAINERD MUSICAL CLUB REVIEW

Little Falls' Musicians Contribute to Make Saturday Meeting a Very Enjoyable One

THE SOLOISTS REVIEWED

Mrs. Jensen Sprano, Miss Williams Pianist, Mrs. Gregory Accompanist

Although Brainerd has not always enjoyed the skill of its neighbor, Little Falls, when exhibited on the diamond or the gridiron, it is pleasant to relate that it did both enjoy and recognize said neighbor's artistic skill when exhibited at Elks hall last Saturday afternoon at a regular meeting of the Musical club.

Although present only in spirit, Mrs. A. W. Ide was hostess on this occasion and thanks are due her for this treat.

Sometimes artists are recognized only by their price, but although Miss Norma Williams came unheralded and was disguised as an amateur by a most unaffected and unpretentious manner, she had scarcely finished the sombre introduction to Valse Trieste (Sibelius) before her artistry was recognized and the appreciation of it was expressed by a spontaneous burst of applause at the close of this first number.

The skill and sympathy of the accompanist, Mrs. Philip Gregory, added much to the pleasure of this as of every number, but it was most marked, perhaps, in the plaintive Romance (Wienlawski) in which the piano supplied the bass support.

After the fantastic Hungarian Dance "Haesche" which closed Miss Williams' first group, the audience insisted upon an encore, but in vain.

The violin is almost human in its response to the touch of a master hand, and only live, supple vocal chords can successfully compete with its power to sing its way into the hearts of people. Such vocal chords were supplied, on this occasion, by Mrs. Charles Jensen, who afforded pleasure both to the ear and the eye. Her numbers were exceptionally pleasing and well suited to her voice and her manner was most charming.

Mrs. Jensen did not respond to her first encore, but after Nevin's adorable "Doris," she yielded to the insistence of the audience and sang "Thy Deep Blue Eye," by San Souci. Following her good example, Miss Williams responded with "Oriental" by Caesar Cui, after her second group, when the audience would not be denied an encore.

One important matter of business was transacted at this meeting. The club voted to engage Miss Little Stearns to give one of her inimitable talks.

Miss Stearns will also lecture at Little Falls. In fact, after her notable "performance" at the M. F. W. C., in Duluth, she secured dates all over the state. Miss Smalley, who knows Miss Stearns well and has heard her many times, had this to say of her: "I know of no one who can make you forget your troubles so completely as Little Stearns. She is a real humorist."

The date for her lecture has not been settled, but it will be soon after Thanksgiving and her subject will be "The Problem of Public Leisure."

The proceeds from this lecture will probably go towards the Open Library Fund.

IS BRAINERD'S POPULAR SINGER

Miss Elizabeth Armstrong's Recital Attracting Great Interest in Music World

AT OPERA HOUSE OCTOBER 29TH

Minneapolis, Bemidji, Cass Lake, Little Falls People Coming to Hear Concert

The recital of Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, October 29, at the Brainerd opera house, which has been the topic of conversation of late and is an event people of Brainerd and other cities are looking forward to with great interest and pleasure, will be doubly welcomed when the people know Miss Armstrong has been coached in her numbers by Richard Hageman of New York city, one of the most important and noted coaches of the Metropolitan opera company. Mr. Hageman's interest in Miss Armstrong's voice as well as that of her teacher, Oscar Seagle and their joint assurance that she will be a success in the musical world are not unimportant facts to remember.

Miss Armstrong is one of Brainerd's own daughters and the city shall one day feel proud that she made her debut in her own home town.

Miss Armstrong is indeed fortunate in having Edwin Harris Bergh assisting in the program. He is a thorough musician and talented violinist and his beautiful interpretations have many times proven him master of the violin.

Mrs. Clyde E. Parker is the accompanist. She is possessed of that rare talent of intuitively following the moods of a singer and in her accompaniments on the piano she interprets the spirit of the composer and also faithfully mirrors the individual interpretation of the singer. Miss Armstrong is indeed proud of the interest Mrs. Parker has taken in the program. Mrs. Parker will play on her own grand piano, an instrument of rare sweetness of tone.

Parties to hear the recital Friday evening are being formed in various cities and towns. From Minneapolis Mr. and Mrs. Thomas D. Skiles and others will be present. Mrs. Porteous, of Minneapolis, a former teacher of Miss Armstrong, will be present. Miss Donna Lyeon of Bemidji, will attend. M. B. Humes and others of Cass Lake are coming. A large delegation of Little Falls people is expected, including many from the Musical Art club of that city. Much interest is being taken locally, for it redounds to the credit of a city to recognize talent and ability in one of its fairest daughters. And when Miss Armstrong faces a crowded house Friday evening there will be added that inspiration which makes an artist do her best.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Elling of Northeast Brainerd, were surprised on Saturday evening by a party of twenty friends. Four tables of progressive 500 was played. J. PACKED ALL DAY

Saturday Was a Record Breaker

This Last Week in October Will Make the Fur Fly

The crowd of Saturday buyers almost swamped us—though we did our best to serve you—no doubt many put off their buying until this week. The L. M. Koop's Removal Sacrifice means just what it says—and even the skeptics are laying in their winter supplies. Never in this Northwest did any firm make such sacrifice on new winter merchandise as is your privilege this last week in October—please bear in mind that you cannot choose from the goods that are sold and every days delay means just that much less to choose from. For this week we have selected many $1.50 and $2.00 articles of apparel marked them 89c—why pay a dollar for less value—when you can buy better here for 89c. There is only one way for you to know the truth of this stock sacrifice and that is to come and see for yourself. We are too busy marking down prices—selling and delivering, to write up big ads—in fact we are the only busy store in town—and if you who need goods don't avail yourself quickly you will miss something that means dollars and cents to you. The crowds at L. M. Koop's Good-Bye Benefit tells you which way the "BARGAIN WINDS BLOW."

SCHOOL OF INSTRUCTION

Of Eastern Star Held at Aitkin, Fifty Delegates Attending, Many There From Brainerd

The school of instruction held in Aitkin for the benefit of Eastern Star Chapters of Crosby, Brainerd, Staples and Aitkin, was a great success, and conceded to have been very picturesque and well carried out by those whose privilege it was to attend. The school opened at 4 p. m. and closed at 10:30. It was conducted by Deputy Worthy Grand Matron Mrs. E. H. Krelwitz and attended by 50 delegates from outside towns, besides the Aitkin members who were present. Mrs. Mabelle Burnham of Jackson, Grand Worthy Matron, attended the meeting, paying her first visit to Aitkin.

A banquet was served at 6 o'clock at the Primrose Cafe, which was a pretty affair. The tables were decorated with red and white carnations, a large bouquet of red roses making conspicuous the table where were seated the Grand Worthy Matron and the Deputy Grand Worthy Matron.—Aitkin Independent-Age.

MUSIC AND DRAMA

"He Fell in Love With His Wife"

"He Fell in Love With His Wife," one of the brightest, most sparkling of comedy dramas ever produced will inaugurate the opening of the engagement of the National Stock company at the Brainerd opera house tonight. The play tells the story of a man who fell in love with his own wife, mistaking her for some one else and the situations brought about by the frequent meetings of the couple at most embarrassing times, forms the basis for the most delightful and unusual comedy. The play is in three acts and there is not a dull moment from the time the curtain rises on the first act till it falls on the last.

Miss Florence Johnstone, who is conceded by all who have seen her, to be one of the best Stock leading women of the day, by her beauty and charm has captivated her audiences wherever she has appeared, the company has been carefully selected with a view to give the theatre goers a first class performance of high class plays at a nominal price. Tonight is ladies night, and all ladies will be admitted free with one paid ticket. See tonight's performance and you are sure to see the rest during their short stay here.

At the Best Theatre

Porter Emerson Browne, who has been hailed as "The" American dramatist, accomplished his greatest success when he penned his daring, virile drama of a weak man and an unscrupulous vampire-woman, "A Fool There Was" of which the screen version has been made by William Fox, and presented at the Best Theatre tonight.

This remarkable drama in which Robert Hilliard starred and achieved a notable success, created a nation-wide discussion at the time of its presentation and had a record breaking run at the Liberty Theatre, New York City.

Based upon Kipling's poem and Burnes-Jones' famous painting, Mr. Browne has succeeded in creating in "A Fool There Was," a work that, for daring originality and sheer power and moving qualities outdoors, in its own particular field of the drama, any play of recent years. It is the tale of a weak-willed man and a woman of sinister beauty and vampire heart.

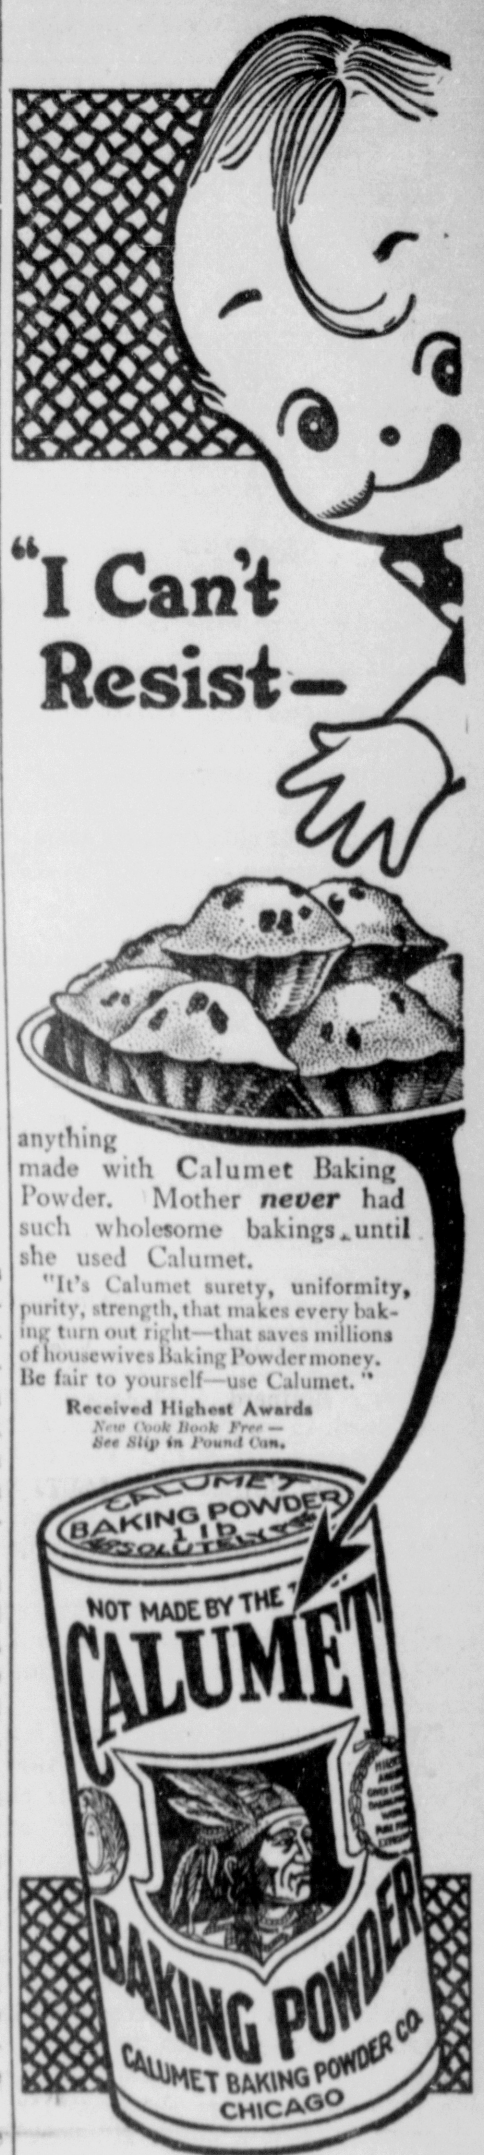

"The Fool" and "His Wife" are happily married and living in a style commensurate with his large fortune at a country house at Larchmont. "The Fool" at the beginning of the play, is a virile, fine natured man, fond of his home, his wife and little child and devoted to wholesome sport. Then comes the meeting with the "The Vampire" who is destined to ultimately ruin and drive him to a disgraceful death. "The Fool" at first resists the wiles of the sinuous, strangely fascinating Vampire. But she bides her time knowing by an experience, mile-stoned by blasted careers, that in due course she will be able to bend her victim to her will.

At the Grand

"Sealed Orders" which played to capacity business last night was one of the cleverest secret service plays ever put in photoplay form. Splendid acting coupled with artistic directing and a country naturally filled with scenic beauty all helped to make this picture one long to be remembered. The orchestra this week will present an exceptionally strong program.

War Courtesy Among Airmen

BY WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Paris, Sept. 21 (By Mail)—Between French, German and English airmen exists a strange comradeship, a fraternity of chivalry and dramatic courtesies which stands out from the mud-slinging and butchery of war like a diamond on black velvet.

While French and British and Belgians and Germans and Austrians on the ground are killing each other by methods that make one's blood run cold, the airmen of the Allies and the birdmen from the Central Empires are putting each other to death, high in the sky, with the utmost courtesy.

Psychologists ask if the warfare in the sky isn't developing the super-hero to whom killing is a sport and death but defeat, like arriving second in a hundred yard dash.

Every time a French aviator has met death in enemy's territory, German aviators carried to France news of the event. After Pegoud died in a mid-air duel a wreath and a card fell from a taube soaring two miles over the French lines.

When Garros was taken prisoner a German airman dropped a note in France praising the French pilot's conduct.

When a German warplane is sent crashing to earth in one of these wonderful air duels, flowers for the German aviators invariably are dropped by the French fighters whenever the duel has been fairly fought.

It is said that never a British aviator disappears but news of him is brought to his waiting comrades by German airmen. Such and such a thing has happened to so and so, says a note which comes plunging down out of the sky, a bullet attached to give it weight.

The British do the same for the Germans. It has become a sort of unwritten law of the air.

Of course there are exceptions; there are sportsmen in all contests who cheat and use unfair means. But generally the war in the air is clean.

It is because the men of the air are heroes of a superior sort. Such, at least, is one answer. For, it is pointed out, most anybody can face bullets on the ground when hundreds of thousands of others are facing them.

Everybody's courage is given to the individual and, almost to his own bewilderment he finds himself doing the bravest of deeds. But in the air the aviator is practically alone. His fight for life is fought unseen.

When such a brave man meets and brings down another of his own particular kind, he seems to feel no personal animosity towards his opponent, but merely a keen rivalry plus, perhaps, a certain amount of admiration, depending upon the other's skill and courage and qualities as a "clean" fighter.

When it is over the irresistible desire to let the vanquished hero's friends know he died like a man seems to come over the victor.

WAR NEWS ONE YEAR AGO TODAY

The German Nieuport-to-Dixmude and Yser canal attacks gained no ground, France said. London reported general advances for the Allies. Russia reported victory in a big battle at Rawa, Russian Poland.

The British fleet bombarding the German left wing for the Belgians, was driven back; the Allies obstinately defended the Yser canal, some progress was made on the eastern front and the Russian Poland battle was undecided, Germany said.

Austro-Germans controlled a line from the Carpathians to Plock, northwest of Warsaw, made progress in Middle Galicia and near Przemyśl and defeated Serbo-Montenegrin forces in Bosnia, Vienna said.

China demanded surrender of a Jap torpedo boat and crew which entered Chinese waters to tow away a wrecked German boat.

WHAT WEEKS WAR MOVES MEAN

By J. W. T. Mason, for United Press

The Serbian plan of campaign is now developing sufficiently to indicate its essential characteristic. Two objectives confronted the general staff at Nish when the Teutons began their drive toward Constantinople and when Bulgaria joined the Teuton-Turk alliance. The first had in reality a double purpose—to prevent the Austro-Germans from cutting their way through Serbia into Bulgaria, and to oppose the Bulgarian effort to join the Teutons in northern Serbia. This is the plan of campaign which the Serbs have accepted.

The alternative objective was to preserve the integrity of Serbian Macedonia and, while permitting the northern invaders to march into Bulgaria, at the same time to hold the Bulgars back in the south. The two objectives could not be adopted at the same time because the Serbian army is not strong enough to be divided into powerful northern and southern groups. Macedonia, therefore, has been largely deserted by the Serb troops, who are compelled to allow the Bulgarians to advance in the southern districts so that the Austro-Germans may encounter the maximum degree of resistance amid the northern mountains.

The acceptance of this plan demonstrates the Serbians are being guided by sound strategic motives. The Macedonian advance of the Bulgars is not far from the Greek border. When the Anglo-French expeditionary force at Saloniki becomes sufficiently strong to strike a major blow in the Balkans, the nearest line against which operations must be directed is the Bulgar front in Macedonia.

The Serbians cannot hold out indefinitely against their enemies if the Allies decide not to make a serious move into the Balkans. It is absolutely necessary that the Serbs accept the theory of eventual and sufficient help from Great Britain and France.

This being the case, the Serbs are contributing powerfully to the Allies' cause by concentrating all their effort in the north and preventing the Teutons from establishing themselves in Bulgaria. The Bulgarian gains in Serbian Macedonia, therefore, are not as important as they might be under other circumstances. The principal advantage the Bulgars are reaping from the situation is an ability to dig themselves in along the Macedonia frontier without serious interference. If the allies carry out their present intentions and throw from 300,000 to 400,000 men into the Balkans, the chances are that the Bulgarians will have to retreat from Macedonia to defend their own country.

Snapshots Sent to Trenches

(By United Press)

London, Sept. 18 (By Mail)—Snapshots for the men in the trenches is the purpose of a new organization—The Home League—now operating in England.

Thousands of amateur photographers go daily with their kodaks and cameras to the homes of the "Tommys" to snap the home folks. The pictures are turned over to the Y. M. C. A., where already 15,000 soldiers have written to ask for a "snap" of kiddies, mother, or wife.

Sometimes in the smaller cities and villages these amateurs set up free "galleries" in their various gardens and tell the relatives of soldiers to come and be snapped. Within ten days the "snap" is in the trenches.

The league, according to advices, will soon extend its activities to Canada, Australia and New Zealand, where pictures of the colonial "Tommys" may be taken and sent to the various fronts.

SERPENTS AS HYPNOTISTS.

The Charm They Use on Animals They Succumb to Themselves.

Cases of fascination by serpents of birds and other small animals have been too frequently reported to admit of serious doubt on the subject. Evidently it is simply a kind of hypnotism and based, like human hypnotism, on the effects of rhythmical impressions made upon the nervous system.

Experiment has proved that the monotonous swinging of a glittering object before the eyes will throw many men and women into hypnotic sleep. When a serpent charms or fascinates a bird or small quadruped it employs a similar method. It sways its head with glittering eyes or sets its brilliantly colored coils into silent rhythmic movement within sight of its victim, and the latter gradually yields to the influence.

But the most dangerous serpents are themselves subject to this very hypnotic control, a fact which is the basis of the proceedings of the serpent charmers of India and those of other countries where venomous snakes abound.

Musical, or the monotonous repetition of musical notes, appears to be the most effective agent in serpent charming. It may be remarked that according to some observers the sounds produced by a rattlesnake, and even the loud hissing of some serpents, have a hypnotic influence, or at least a sort of paralyzing force, due probably to terror. The cobras of southern Asia and the closely related najas of Africa will come out of holes, erect their heads and a part of their bodies and sway about in a kind of serpent dance when they hear the notes of a pipe played by a skilled performer.

However, no cobra charmer ever has sufficient confidence in his control over his dangerous subjects to neglect the removal of their fangs.

A cobra bite has been known to kill a man within a few minutes of its infliction.—Garrett P. Serviss in Detroit News.

REPUBLICANS MAY NAME HUGHES YET

Party Leaders Think He Is Strongest Man in Ranks.

TALK DISTASTEFUL TO HIM.

Has Repeatedly Said He Is Not a Candidate and Will Not Become a Candidate for the Nomination, but Has Never Said That He Would Refuse It—Has Fine Place Now.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 25.—[Special.]—Although Associate Justice Hughes says that the discussion of his name for the Republican nomination is distasteful, there is no doubt that plans are developing to nominate him in spite of himself. The fact that this undercurrent of Republican opinion is flowing steadily forward will, I am told, bring a still more emphatic assertion from Justice Hughes than he has yet made and will say that he will not accept if nominated. He has not yet gone so far in any declaration he has made.

Coupled with this information is the statement that Justice Hughes does not want to trade a certainty for an uncertainty; that he rather expects to see President Wilson re-elected, and that he does not feel warranted in leaving the supreme bench to become a candidate with the possibility of defeat.

Largely Speculative.

Of course all talk as to what a justice of the supreme court will or will not do is purely speculative. The talk about keeping the court out of politics does not mean anything except among lawyers. Back as far as the Dred Scott decision, before the civil war, the court was political. Decisions sustaining greenback issues were in a way political, and decisions relative to the insular possessions were of a political character. Consequently the reverence for the court need not keep a member of it from accepting the presidency. It is true that Justice Hughes has made it plain that he thinks politics should be kept away from the court, but then there is the great voice of the people to be considered.

"King Caucus" Again.

During the Sixty-third congress the Democrats took the administration measures into caucus, adopted them and proceeded to put them into legislation. The program in the Sixty-fourth congress will be the same. And there will be the same amount of complaint on the part of the Republicans about caucus rule and domination.

But the people of the country will not care. No one will care a rap how legislation is enacted if it is the kind of legislation they want. It is only when measures are passed which are unsatisfactory that the people revolt, and then it is not because of the manner in which they were passed.

Ship Purchase Bill.

The administration ship purchase bill, defeated at the close of the last session, is to be urged with renewed vigor in the coming congress. The bill is stronger in the senate than before, but the house is still an uncertain quantity. The administration now feels sure of controlling both houses for all its measures.

Tracing the Lewis Boom.

Trying to connect the talk about James Hamilton Lewis with the administration, it is pointed out that when the president has been asked to deliver speeches at different places and cannot go he has had Senator Lewis "sub" for him. Friends of Lewis have figured out that this indicates that the president would like to have Lewis as a perpetual substitute.

Then another reason is given by the nature of his position the president will not be able to make campaign speeches. For that reason it will be considered an excellent thing to have a rattling good speaker and pleasing campaigner on the ticket with him, who can go all over the country, just as Roosevelt did in the second McKinley campaign.

One of the Problems.

Senator Hughes of New Jersey has been a member of the ways and means committee in the house and is a member of the finance committee in the senate and knows something about the difficulties in raising revenue. So when he spoke the following he knew something about the troubles ahead:

"I am in favor of any plan the president or Secretary Garrison may recommend, of course, but the big problem in connection with increasing the army and navy is where the money is to come from. When we are considering the matter of increasing our army and navy we must also consider where the revenue is to come from for paying for the increase. I'm blessed if I know where we are to get the funds."

Maryland Senators.

The bitter fight of the Maryland senators is to continue. Senator Lee failed to secure the nomination for governor and will be a candidate to succeed himself in the senate next year. Senator John Walter Smith will do all he can to defeat Lee, as they are bitter political enemies. The Republicans see in this contest the possibility of gaining one of the many senatorial seats they need to regain control of the senate.

MAY ENLARGE AERO CORPS

War Department Plans to Add Another Company to Squadrons.

Washington, Oct. 25.—The war department is considering a plan to add another company to the organized aero squadrons, bringing the total enlisted strength from ninety to 129 men and the number of machines from eight to twelve. No increase is proposed in the number of commissioned officers.

If this new organization is adopted it will make a material difference in the proposed increase to be recommended by Secretary Garrison of five additional battalions to the signal corps, or 645 men, together with sixty machines, or the air scouts required for five divisions of the mobile army.

Under the new organization each air squadron will have eight scouting machines, two pursuit machines and two fighting aeroplanes.

Mohonk Conference Makes Plea for Porto Ricans.

Mohonk Lake, N. Y., Oct. 24.—That inhabitants of Porto Rico be given full American citizenship was recommended by the Lake Mohonk conference of Indian and other dependent peoples. Reports to the conference stated that congestion of population in Porto Rico should be remedied, as the poorer classes are threatened with starvation.

The government should define just what is meant by Indian, in order that persons wrongfully claiming to be Indians may not be permitted to share tribal lands, the conference held. Improvement of the Indian service and better treatment for the Utes were asked.

OFFICERS KILL UXORCIDE

Merchant Meets Death When He Refuses to Surrender.

Charleston, Va., Oct. 25.—Burk McClure, the merchant who fled from Mann, Logan county, after the murder of his wife and her cousin and the shooting of two other persons, was shot to death at the home of his brother-in-law in Oceana, Wyoming county, by the posse of Sheriff Caslin of that county.

The sheriff and his men found McClure hiding in a woodshed. When he refused to surrender the fugitive was shot.

Old Railroad Man Stricken.

South Woodstock, Conn., Oct. 25.—Lynde A. Catlin, who was secretary of the Illinois Central railroad from 1884 to 1884, died suddenly at his home of apoplexy. He was eighty-two years old.

JOHN LARSON

MEAT IS A STIMULANT.

Hence, Eaten in Excess, It is Bad For Both Body and Mind.

The director of one of the largest physical culture schools in the United States said not long ago to a friend of mine:

"Every time I eat a piece of good beefsteak I feel as stimulated as if I had drunk a cocktail."

This curious statement embodies a truth of which most people are unaware.

Meat is not merely a food. It also is a stimulant, with definite exhilarating effects on both mind and body.

Eaten in excess, moreover, it acts much as does an excessive amount of the alcoholic beverage mentioned by the physical culture director.

That is to say, it tends, in the first place, to cause nervous irritability, making it more difficult for a man to control his passions and sometimes making him positively savage.

And, in the second place, when eaten in excess it makes him mentally inert and stupid.

The reason for this second effect is well known to all scientific students of food values.

Cooked meat, the form in which meat usually is eaten, is not easy to digest. If too much of it is eaten imperfect digestion results, and the blood stream is poisoned by the decomposing animal food in the alimentary canal.

Not total abstinence, but temperance—enough meat to spur the mind, not enough to deaden it—that is the lesson to be drawn from the demonstrated stimulant effect of animal food.—H. Addington Bruce in Kansas City Times.

"MERRY WIDOW" DIED OCT. 24

Ironton News Comments on the Loss of the Range Passenger Train Service

Ironton News:—The Northern Pacific Railway company has decided to kill the "Merry Widow," and today is to be her last one. Her death will be mourned by everyone in this part of the county, for nobody would think of going to Brainerd except in her company, and everybody here has to go to Brainerd once in a while. Some of us go there to trade, some go to see if the place is really and truly as dry as it was going to be, some go because the sheriff insists and some just go anyway, for one reason or another we all go.

Now that the Merry Widow is off we can go via Deerwood, and it will be possible to travel in daylight and be in Brainerd between 12:05 and 2:07. That is plenty of time for some people but most will have to go or come in the night, spending the rest at a hotel. The effect is likely to be that more people will go to Duluth. If they have to stay all night anyway they can go to one about as easy as the other.

A SUCCESSFUL OPENING

New "Best Theatre" Starts Out With a Record Attendance of Over 2,500 in Two Days

The new "Best Theatre" started out with over 2,500 attendance for six performances Saturday and Sunday and the owners, Messrs. Price and Livingston, are highly pleased with their success.

A fine performance was given of "Graustark" and many who have seen the play and read the book were charmed by the wonderful film story. At a time when the interest of the world is centered on Austria and Germany, "Graustark" and its legendary Austrian history come with particular significance and the little principality and its beautiful queen, who traveled incognito as Miss Gugenlocker, form scenes and incidents which even now can find their counterpart in history.

There is an American in the cast and he fights his way to the throne and wins his beloved in spite of warring princes about him.

At the theatre an orchestra of three pieces led by Julius Witham discoursed pleasing music which like a mosaic fit in with the spirit of the pictures. "The Best Theatre" ushers were in evidence and looked after the comfort of the big audiences. The rear door opening on South Sixth street is also used as an exit, thus preventing congestion when one show closes and another is about to begin.

NEW 11 CENT STAMP

Postmaster H. P. Dunn Says the Brainerd Office will Soon Receive Supply of Same

Postmaster H. P. Dunn says that the Brainerd office will soon receive a supply of the latest issue of stamps put out by the government. They are eleven cent stamps and are in color a darker shade of green than the one cent stamp which they somewhat resemble. A picture of Benjamin Franklin appears on the sticker.

It has been found in the parcel post business that many packages require postage amounting to eleven cents and for this reason the new issue is printed. Stamps are now printed in one, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten, eleven and twelve cents varieties and a few larger ones.

PET BEAR ON SOUTH SIDE

BEAR LICKED A BULL DOG

Is a Playful Little Fellow, Four and a Half Months Old, Visited at Minneapolis

Leo E. Huston of 1206 South Sixth street has a pet bear aged four and a half months and the cub is a playful as a kitten. Treat him right and the bear responds in kind. But fuss around with him and offend his dignity and Mr. Bear puts up a fight and a good one too.

Some friends near the Huston home had a bulldog and acquaintances shook their heads to think of the calamity to the bear if he and the yellow bull dog came to grips, as the English say.

Well, they met the other afternoon. The bull dog started the fight, taking a bite at the cub's face. The latter bit the dog in the nose and clawed the front of him. The bull dog gave a startled yap and fled down the street.

Mr. Huston took the bear to Minneapolis and at the Iowa-Minnesota football game the Iowa men paraded Mr. Bear as their mascot. In the evening some wags gave Mr. Bear a taste of strong drink and today he has crowded into his hole and no amount of talk or flourishing of rabbits will move him out. Mr. Huston said he appeared to be sleeping it off.

He acquired the bear at Yellowstone park where he had been employed in the summer months.

GASOLINE AND NAPHTHA

Bulletin from Fire Marshal's Department Specifies How to Use Them Safely at Home made less dangerous for household use if the following six rules are observed," says Robert W. Hargadine, State Fire Marshal:

1. Never keep gasoline or naphtha in a glass bottle or other breakable container.
2. Never keep it near a fire or in a warm place.
3. Never rub any article in gasoline or naphtha, because these products are easily electrified. An exception to this rule may be made in cleaning kid gloves stretched upon the hands, providing the rubbing is done in the fluid, and is done in the open air.
4. Never press or iron goods that have been cleaned with gasoline or naphtha until they are thoroughly dried in the open air.
5. Never sprinkle gasoline or naphtha about the edges of carpets or rugs to kill moths.
6. Never keep a supply of gasoline or naphtha in the cellar where the vapor from a possible leak might accumulate, but if it is absolutely necessary to keep the product in the house place the container on a shelf at least four feet from the ground.

The observance of these simple rules will eliminate the hazards of handling these extremely inflammable products in the household, and none is expensive, onerous or impractical.

SHELL BULGARIAN BARRACKS

Allied Warships Cause Heavy Losses Among Soldiers.

London, Oct. 25.—The bombardment of Dedaghat caused the death of ten civilians and more than 1,000 soldiers and there also were a large number of soldiers wounded, says a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph company from Athens.

A large proportion of the military casualties, the correspondent adds, were in the barracks which housed the Fortieth Bulgarian regiment. The barracks were crowded with soldiers who were preparing for their meal when the bombardment was opened at 1 p. m. with accurately aimed shells, which demolished the barracks, burying the occupants in the ruins.

SEVEN PERSONS KILLED IN AUTO

Train Strikes Machine on Crossing at Fraser, Mich.

CREW GATHERS UP BODIES

Driver of Car Apparently Did Not See Approaching Train—Victims, All Members of One Family, Were Scattered Along the Right of Way for a Quarter of a Mile.

Detroit, Oct. 25.—Seven members of one family were instantly killed and an eighth was fatally injured by a Grand Trunk passenger train, which struck an automobile at Fraser, Mich., sixteen miles from Detroit.

The dead are Mrs. Rachel Stoldt, forty-seven years old; her five daughters, Pearl, seventeen; Esther, fifteen; Hazel, twelve; Mabel, ten, and Martha, six, and Miss Minnie Engel, forty-seven, a sister of Mrs. Stoldt. William Stoldt, a farmer of Troy, Mich., the husband and father, was severely mangled.

There were no witnesses of the accident. Apparently Stoldt, driving the automobile, did not see the approaching train and drove the machine on the crossing directly in front of the locomotive. The crew gathered up the bodies, scattered along the right of way for a quarter of a mile.

Stoldt was taken to a hospital in Mount Clemens, where physicians say he cannot recover.

SKIRMISH WITH MEXICANS

One American Soldier Is Probably Fatally Wounded.

Brownsville, Tex., Oct. 25.—Soldiers of the Fourth United States Infantry and Mexican bandits engaged in a skirmish at the scene of the train robbery and murders of last Monday. One American soldier, Private Herman E. Moore of French Lick Springs, Ind., was wounded in the fight, according to reports received at Fort Brown.

Sergeant Arthur Estridge of Company C, Fourth Infantry, was in command of the detachment attacked. He reported to Fort Brown headquarters that five Mexicans were seen to cross the railroad track just beyond where the infantry was stationed. The soldiers promptly opened fire on the Mexicans, while the commander gave alarm to headquarters. When the Mexicans returned the fire their number seemed larger.

The firing lasted about five minutes. Probably one hundred shots were fired. Private Moore was wounded in the abdomen and also in the arms and is not expected to live. No Mexicans were killed so far as known.

MURDERED IN LOCKED ROOM

Body of Lawyer Has Thirteen Wounds on Head.

St. Louis, Oct. 25.—Robert L. Rowden, an attorney, married nine days ago, was hacked to death under mysterious circumstances in a boarding house here. His body, with the mouth gagged by two handkerchiefs and with the head cut in thirteen places, was found when the police at the request of Rowden's wife hammered down the locked door of his room.

Mrs. Rowden, a physician, called at her husband's apartments because he had failed to keep an appointment with her. She said they had been living at their respective homes pending the completion of a cottage in St. Louis county. Rowden was fifty-three years old and his wife about the same age.

Though his pockets were turned inside out the police are not certain that robbery was the only motive for the murder.

BIG FIGHT COMING ON PREPAREDNESS

All Congressmen Are Studying National Defense.

THE PHILIPPINE PROBLEMS.

Every Kind of a Gun From a Squirrel Shooter to a Sixteen Inch Gun on a Thirty-five Knot Battle Cruiser Will Be Advocated When the Next Session of Congress Gets to Work.

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, Oct. 25.—[Special.]—The next session of congress will see discussed every feature of national defense and national weakness. It will go the whole gamut from the Arkansas squirrel shooter to sixteen inch guns on thirty-five knot cruisers, from a well fortified coast to the unprotected Philippines. In fact, there will be no phase of military possibilities that will not be discussed.

Where there is so much talk it may be certain there will be little action. The talk will develop the fact that this country is uncertain as to what is best for it; that military and naval men are far from knowing what should be done to secure the best equipment and the most serviceable munitions and ships.

Nearly every member of congress has been studying the subject of national defense. He will tell you so if he is asked. This does not include those who have declared that they will follow the president, but there will be enough men who think they are experts to fill volumes of the Record and to show a wide divergence of opinion as to what should be done.

The Philippine Maelstrom.

Right in the thick of the military discussion will be the disposition of the Philippines. The fight over the Jones bill will be more spirited this session than last, for opinions have changed, and the European war has shown difficulties in the way of either maintaining or getting rid of the Philippines that did not seem apparent last winter. It has been shown that an international agreement guaranteeing their neutrality might be like other "agreements."

It has also been said that some of the Filipino statesmen have concluded that the lessons of the war show that it would be better to remain under the strong protecting arm of the United States than attempt to sail the troubled seas of independent existence.

Bourne's Absolute Confidence.

Jonathan Bourne is one Republican who believes with absolute confidence that the Republicans will win next year. "There is no question about it," remarked this Oregon enthusiast. "We are going to lick 'em as sure as the sun shines. I am in touch with people all over the country and know what I am talking about."

Ashurst Converted.

Senator Ashurst came to Washington to attend to business in the department and will remain for the session of congress. The Arizona senator has made a number of speeches before the various defense societies and spoke for preparedness. "I have changed my mind about war," said the senator. "I have for a long time thought that war was at an end. I am rather inclined now to think that it has just begun. The United States should not be armed, but prepared."

This is one of the interesting changes that have occurred in the minds of statesmen, for Ashurst was an earnest peace man.

Stirring a Bit in the South.

There is an indication that politics is stirring a bit in the south. Various politicians have begun to talk of this or that candidate's popularity among southern Republicans. This is the bait to lure friends of different candidates to open up campaigns and begin distributing cash. Southern Republican politics, save in districts which are really Republican, is a matter of money. Presidential years are the harvest time for them. Nothing suits them quite so well as to have a number of very rich candidates or candidates backed by rich men in the field and earnestly seeking the nomination. That means "good pickin's" in most of the southern states.

Army of 200,000 Enough.

A group of men were discussing the proposed increase of the army, and former Senator Crane of Massachusetts remarked that an army of 200,000 was enough for this country. "The country won't support a large standing army," he said. "Those who are talking about large increases should learn the temper of the people on this subject." But it will be difficult to secure even an army of 200,000. In the first place congress would hesitate a long time before it would authorize that number, and in the next it is doubtful if that number could be secured by voluntary enlistments. It is with great difficulty that men are now secured for the army and navy.

Will Renew the Fight.

Postmaster General Burleson will renew the fight to secure an adjustment of railway mail pay during the session. He will not have too much, for Chairman Moon of the postoffice committee is determined to have the railroads receive less for carrying the mails than they now are getting. It will probably result in a long drawn out fight in congress, as there is a wide difference between the house and senate over the measure.

More Than the Average.

Mrs. Wayup—How much sleep do I need, doctor? Doctor—Well, the average person needs about seven hours. Mrs. Wayup—Then I shall take about fourteen. I consider that I am much above the average.—Judge.

WILL FIGHT IMMIGRATION

American Federation of Labor Expected to Act.

San Francisco, Oct. 25.—Immigration will loom large in the councils of the American Federation of Labor convention, which opens here Nov. 8. Indications point to a strong sentiment among many delegates against admitting more immigrants than the nation can readily assimilate and educate to an understanding of American ideals of life and conditions of living.

ARMY PLAN NEARLY READY

President Will Discuss It With House and Senate Members.

Washington, Oct. 25.—Final work on the army plan which will be presented to congress at the next session will be done this week.

Secretary Garrison's program, which has been approved in its general outlines by President Wilson, will be discussed by the president with Representative Hay, chairman of the house military affairs committee and probably late in the week with Senator Chamberlain, chairman of the senate committee.
